1. Who can feel My hand upon them?
Who can see My hand in them?
Who can see My throne, and know that I am I AM; who can deal with Me with a perfect (1) heart/sinlessness.

2. Who will I cast out without it?
Yea, who come unto Me and seek to see My throne, theirs.

3. Theirs/Mine. Mine/theirs.

4. Who will I in nowise cast out, and say to the sinner who is the saint? And what is the sin?

5. Who can see My hand upon them and know/read My definitions, My perceptibles, imperfections none?

6. Who can see My design in them, among them, and issue My decrees at law?

7. Who can come unto Me without sorrow and see My unfairness, not, and yea, the equity and justice of My law?

8. Who can come unto Me and see My hand upon them and yield to the Christ within, to become the Christ seen, operating in glory?

9. Who will come unto Me, for, yea, that which is not theirs, but for My brethren all; to make a profit on, not; but, yea, to profit My family all. I love you.

10. Who can ask/answer, answer/ask; and in asking, answer; and in asking, answer?

11. Who will answer and who will ask?

12. And who will restore the priesthood of all believers, that, yea, My family is, in the now, you reader-hearer?

13. Listen, master/surrenderer to My words. I love you.

14. My degrees conferred. Thank you.

Footnotes:
Notes:
1. I don't think this can be grasped with a quick reading. I think line 3 answers lines 1 and 2.

2. Line 6 answers the question on line 5.
3. "Theirs/Mine. Mine/theirs" is a statement of how our thrones must be.
4. The question, " Who will I in nowise cast out"? is answered basically by almost every remaining question, that really are answers to "who He will cast out."
5. "Degrees conferred" I think speak to how He will be the one to "confer degrees" to the students in the University of The New Covenant.
6. Heb 12:22-23 But you have come to Mount Zion, to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God. You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, to the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the judge of all men, to the spirits of righteous men made perfect.
